AYBC Summer Challenge Benefits

To all teams participating in AYBC,

Confirmation regarding support for overseas teams is as follows:

Participation fee of $700 is waived for overseas teams.

Accommodation support:

Three nights (from the 9th to the 11th) of accommodation will be provided free of charge at selected facilities for the female teams. Check-out will be on the 12th.

Three nights (from the 12th to the 14th) of accommodation will be provided free of charge at selected facilities for the male teams. Check-out will be on the 15th.

Lunch expenses for three days will be covered, payable in cash at the rate of $375 (USD).

Each team participating in two age groups (e.g., U11, U12) will receive cash support of $750 per team category ($375 x 2).

Since the participation fee is waived and cash support is provided for this tournament, meals and transportation are not covered. Teams are responsible for arranging their own meals and transportation. This can be done by contacting travel agencies individually in advance. If finding a travel agency proves difficult, please inform us, and we can connect you with travel agencies in Korea.

Additional Information

Important Information for All Teams to Note:

a. Interpreters:

Given the language differences inherent in international competitions, there may be some inconvenience.

While interpreters will be available at the competition venue, please note that there won't be interpreters assigned to each team for daily activities during the tournament period in Korea.

Therefore, we recommend that you arrange interpreters for each team through a travel agency.

b. Travel Agencies:

Difficulties may arise in transportation from accommodation to the gymnasium and in restaurant reservations.

Therefore, it's essential to check and request these services through a travel agency.

If your team encounters difficulties in contacting a travel agency, we can assist you in connecting with one up to the point of contact.
